

A close-up photograph of a person's hand working on a piece of fabric. The fabric has a complex woven pattern of small, irregular squares in various shades of brown and tan. The hand is positioned in the upper left, with fingers spread, appearing to be in the process of weaving or finishing the material. The lighting is warm and focused on the hand and the fabric's texture.

*IN A MACHINE-
MADE, MASS-
PRODUCED,
TECHNOLOGY-
OBSESSED
WORLD, IT'S TIME TO TALK TO THE HAND.*

The hand that SHAPES, STITCHES, CRAFTS, and otherwise transforms a cold, hard world into a reflection of the warmth of the human spirit. In praise of the hand and the artisan behind it, WE CREATED HOMAGE.

Made of Eco Solution Q® fiber and EcoWorx® backing, the collection is FULLY CRADLE-TO-CRADLE and coordinates beautifully with our new and luxurious Wool collection.

Homage is a tribute to process and product, art and craft, MAN AND MACHINE.

ALL IN AGREEMENT, PLEASE RAISE YOUR HAND.

EMBELLISH tile

The Egyptians used glass. Native Americans favored seeds. The Romans used pearls. We envisioned a totally new mode of adornment: METALLIC SLASHES against a subtly textured, linear background.

BLOCK PRINT tile

Chinese block printers created BOLDLY PATTERNED TEXTILES as early as the year 220. The technique served as the inspiration here. The design is further enhanced by gleamy fiber accents that have the look of handwrought stitching.

CRAFT tile

Charles Eames once said, "we are deeply in need of the values which come under the head of 'craftsmanship.'" We echo that sentiment in Craft, a richly textured pattern that features rows of silvery metallic fibers WEAVING IN AND OUT of the background.

SHIBORI

Shibori involves tightly binding sections of cloth to create INTRICATE PATTERNS when the cloth is dyed. The look and feel of the ancient Japanese art is celebrated here in sophisticated neutral hues that form a chic, hombre pattern.

SEWN

Echoing the beauty of HANDMADE EMBROIDERY, Sewn's delicate, shimmering threads appear to be stitched into the richly hued background.
